Duties of
M/H/O

As the duties of the Medical Health Officer are imposed by the Public Health Act under which the Board of Health of the Town operates I am of the opinion that in all matters which come under the purview of that Act the Medical Officer should report to the Board of Health. The Medical Officer, however, has additional duties (such as inoculations, etc.) performed mostly in the public and parochial schools of the Town. These are not duties imposed by the Public Health Act. They are performed by the Medical Health Officer at the request of the Town Council as one of the duties upon taking office. They are for the benefit of all the children of the Town. For the matter of convenience and inclusiveness they are carried on in all schools of the Town under an arrangement made a number of years ago between the Town, the School Board, the Supervisors of the Parochial Schools and the Dartmouth Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses. Under this arrangement the Town took full responsibility for the carrying out of preventive treatments and the payment therefor, the various schools co-operating by allowing this work to be performed during school hours. On this work it is my opinion that the Medical Officer should report to the Town Council.

Since the Town Council and the Board of Health are identical in personnel, with the Medical Officer as an additional official member and executive of the Board of Health it follows that when a report is made to the Town Council the information in that report is thereby also had by all members of the Board of Health. I would suggest that in future the report of the Town Medical Health Officer be addressed as follows:

"To His Worship the Mayor and Members of Town Council and

To the Chairman and Members of the Board of Health of the Town of Dartmouth."

Following the reception of the report by the Town Council if there is anything in it that requires the attention of the Board of Health the Town Council can convene as a Board of Health and deal with it, otherwise the reception of the report by the Council would seem to be sufficient for all ordinary purposes.

To cover the subject completely I should add that there is a provision in the Public Health Act for a yearly report to the Town Council by the Medical Officer which has, I believe, always been regularly submitted.

On motion of Commrs. ~~Beazley~~ and ~~Cuptill~~ the suggestions as outlined in the Solicitor's letter were approved.
