

Proclamation

Daffodil Month

April 2011

- WHEREAS the daffodil symbolizes a “badge of courage and strength” in Nova Scotians fight against cancer; and
- WHEREAS cancer touches the lives of far too many citizens within Halifax Regional Municipality; and
- WHEREAS each April volunteers and staff from the Canadian Cancer Society sell daffodils to raise funds to help in the fight against cancer and to create cancer awareness within Halifax Regional Municipality.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that, I, Mayor Peter Kelly, on behalf of members of Halifax Regional Council, do hereby proclaim April, as “Daffodil Month” in Halifax Regional Municipality, in order to draw residents’ awareness to the fight against cancer by supporting the Canadian Cancer Society in urging family, friends, and neighbours to engage in healthy lifestyles and the importance of regular screening and early detection.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
This 5th day of April, 2011.

Peter Kelly
Mayor
