

Proclamation

Intergenerational Day Canada June 1, 2014

WHEREAS Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is meant to raise awareness about the simplicity and power of intergeneration connections

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is a day to focus on the profound positive influence intergenerational connecting has in creating healthy, all-age friendly communities

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is a day to celebrate all the good things presently taking place between generations in local community

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, does not require funding, excessive time or extensive planning

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, will have its greatest strength as a reminder, an invitation for every individual to take one small respectful step to bridge generations within his or her local community. (How much effort and time does it take to smile at someone from a different generation....with such huge sustainable return?)

Therefore, be it resolved that I, Mayor Mike Savage, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council, do hereby proclaim June 1st, 2014 as "Intergenerational Day Canada" in HRM.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 1st day of June, 2014
