

Proclamation

Canadian Forces Day June 3, 2007

WHEREAS the Canadian Forces make a significant contribution to the stability and security of Canada and the world;

WHEREAS the extraordinary men and women of the Canadian Forces are doing their duty with honour and bravery in hostile environments, all the while enduring lengthy separations from their families;

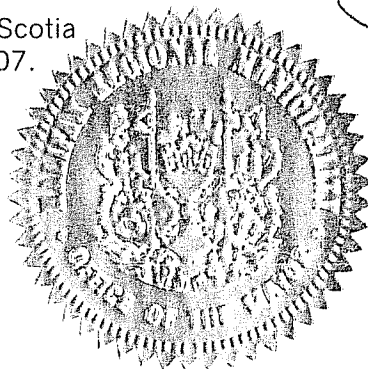

WHEREAS the contribution of the Canadian Forces has been remarkable, whether in protecting Canada's sovereignty and interests, disaster relief, search and rescue, or coastal and air surveillance;

WHEREAS both at home and abroad, members of the Canadian Forces are working tirelessly to build a better world, in many cases making the ultimate sacrifice for their country. And for that, Canadians wish to express their infinite gratitude to the members of our Canadian Forces, as well as admiration toward their families and the sacrifices they make.

AND WHEREAS Halifax Regional Municipality is home to the largest Canadian Forces base in Canada, and the richest military history in the country;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, Mayor Peter J. Kelly, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council, do hereby proclaim, June 3, 2007, to be Canadian Forces Day in the Halifax Regional Municipality.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 1st day of June 2007.

Peter J. Kelly
Mayor
