

Proclamation

St. John Ambulance Day
June 6, 2008

- WHEREAS St. John Ambulance, a non-profit organization with a rich historical background, has provided first aid training and community services to Canadians for 125 years; and
- WHEREAS St. John Ambulance has many dedicated volunteers who devote their time and energy to community service through countless volunteer hours; and
- WHEREAS St. John Ambulance has developed continuing programs of first aid training and community service to meet the changing needs of Canadians of all ages and from all walks of life;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that, I, Mayor Peter J. Kelly, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council do hereby proclaim June 6, 2008 as “St. John Ambulance Day” and 2008 as the 125th Anniversary of St. John Ambulance in Canada.

In 2008, I hope that all Canadians will recognize and appreciate the dedication of St. John Ambulance and its thousands of volunteers.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 27th day of May, 2008.

Peter J. Kelly
Mayor
