

Proclamation

KIN CANADA FOUNDERS DAY February 20, 2009

WHEREAS, February 20, 2009 is recognized as Kin Canada's Founders Day; and

WHEREAS, Kin Founders Day aims to remind all Canadians that Kin Canada is a uniquely Canadian only organization that promotes those ideals of service and fellowship deeply rooted in Canadian society; and

WHEREAS, this is the 89th year that Kinsmen and Kinette service clubs have operated throughout Canada pursuing the association's motto of 'Serving the Community's Greatest Needs', while continuing to offer individuals personal growth and professional development along the way; and

WHEREAS, Kin Founders Day is held in recognition of Harold Allin Rogers who, as a direct result of his personal initiative in 1920, hundreds of thousands of young adults, through their membership in Kinsmen and Kinettes, have dedicated portions of their lives to organized programs of improvement of self, of community, and of nation.

WHEREAS, we ask the communities in the Halifax Regional Municipality to embrace those Kin and other service clubs which strive to make a difference in so many people's lives.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Mayor Peter J. Kelly, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council, do hereby proclaim February 20th, 2009 as Kin Canada Founders Day.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 17th day of February, 2009.

Peter J. Kelly
Mayor
