

Proclamation

Intergenerational Day Canada June 1st, 2013

Whereas Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st, is meant to raise awareness about the simplicity and power of intergenerational connections;

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st is a day to focus on the profound positive influence intergenerational connecting has in creating healthy, all-age friendly communities;

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st is a day to celebrate all of the good things presently taking place between generations in local community;

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st does not require funding, excessive time or extensive planning;

Intergenerational Day Canada, June 1st will have its greatest strength as a reminder, an invitation for every individual to take one small respectful step to bridge generations within his or her local community.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT, I, Mayor Mike Savage, on behalf of Halifax Regional Council do hereby proclaim June 1, 2013 as Intergenerational Day Canada in the Halifax Regional Municipality.
