

Proclamation

Blood Cancer Day October 18, 2014

WHEREAS, additional support, information, and funding provided by skilled non-profit teams contributes to the quality of life of cancer patients and their families in Atlantic Canada; and

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Canada (LLSC) helps to aid patients in their journeys with blood cancers. Employees with the help of hospital staff and the direction of the Patient Education and Support Services Manage also provide additional knowledge about diagnosis, treatment and care and allow patients and families to become better advocates for themselves.

As a critical part of the cancer community, LLSC employees and volunteers work tirelessly to improve the quality of life of patients and their families in the Atlantic Canada region. The LLSC has become a staple in the Atlantic community for their contributions to patient advocacy, research funding, and support programs to ensure more positive outcomes.

THEREFORE, I, Mayor, Mike Savage, do hereby proclaim October 18th 2014 as Blood Cancer Day throughout Halifax and encourage all of our citizens to recognize LLSC for the significant impact they have made and continue to make in the battle against cancer.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 18th day of October, 2014
