Date of Council Meeting: June 2, 2015
Subject: Public Transit Fund
Motion for Council to Consider:
It is recommended that Halifax Regional Council direct staff to prepare a report that:
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Investigates the criteria for the new Public Transit Fund announced in the 2015 federal budget, which is intended to reduce urban congestion and gridlock and offer new transit alternatives in Canada's major cities through new capital projects; and2. Considers any major capital projects for Halifax Transit which may meet the eligibility criteria of the Fund and be most effectively delivered with private sector involvement, as the Fund stipulates.
Reason:
To determine whether funds may be available for major capital projects for Halifax Transit.
Outcome Sought:
Staff report that investigates the criteria for the new Public Transit Fund announced in the 2015 federal budget and considers any major capital projects for Halifax Transit which may meet the eligibility criteria of the Fund and be most effectively delivered with private sector involvement, as the Fund stipulates.
