

5.

FRENCH FOR THE FUTURE DAY
Jour "Français pour l'avenir"
April 26, 2005

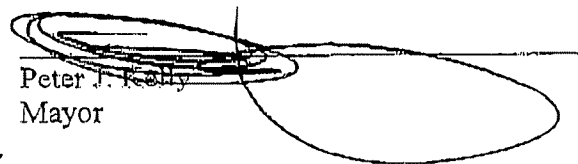

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS the Halifax Regional Municipality recognizes and honours the bilingual nature of Canada, and celebrates the contributions our French-speaking fellow citizens have made to the creation and evolution of this community; and
- WHEREAS the students of our Municipality have had the opportunity to be educated in the French Immersion and francophone programs for over 25 years; and
- WHEREAS the students are proud of their contributions to our Municipality and our Country; and
- WHEREAS the sixth national conference of Le français pour l'avenir/French for the Future, is being hosted at Mount Saint Vincent University, and will provide Francophone and French Immersion students with an opportunity to celebrate and share their achievements.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Peter J. Kelly, Mayor of the Halifax Regional Municipality, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, April 26, 2005, as "French for the Future Day" in the Halifax Regional Municipality.

Dated at Halifax, Nova Scotia
this 26th day of April, 2005.

Peter J. Kelly
Mayor